

Instructions:

- No mobile phones/ electronics watches/ books /paper allowed during the exams.
- Please read the test carefully.
- Three sheets have been provided. One for rough work and others to sketch and write. Extra sheets can be provided on request.

Materials Required:

- Art material such as black pens, pencils 2B, eraser, ruler, colour pencils and sketch pens, ruler.
- Please refrain from water colour / poster/ crayon colours.

Time management:

- Manage your time to creatively solve the problem and clearly sketch/illustrate the solution.

Choose one design challenge from the three given below.

- Identify a problem/pain point in the challenge you have selected. Define the same in not more than 50 words.
- Make rough sketches of your solution in the A3 paper provided.
- Sketch/illustrate clearly your final solution in the layout of the answer paper (A3 size).
- Explain the final solution and the rationale of solution in not more than 300 words on a separate sheet.
- Evaluation will be based on innovativeness of solution and quality of the illustrations.

Answer Paper layout

Pain points listing and rough concepts	Rough concepts continued
--	--------------------------

A3 size
PAPER I

Final concept and rationale

A3 Size
PAPER II

Design challenge:

- Think of five different uses of the traditional temple bells. Sketch the new form to illustrate your design in a scenario. This scenario should depict the use of your proposed design.

OR

- Visitors to high rise buildings, can get frustrated waiting for the lift especially if it's a college or office building. Propose a design that will keep the waiting engaged or induce them to use stairs.

OR

- Considering the current technology landscape propose a probable scenario 50 years from today, visualise the future of a classroom. Sketch your solution in the proposed probable futuristic scenario.